"Florida's Changing Legal Profession"

1.0 CLE (pending)
11:00 a.m.-11:50 a.m.
FAMU College of Law, Room 240
201 Beggs Ave., Orlando, FL 32801
(registration not required)

Moderator:

Ava Doppelt, Esq., Allen, Dyer, Doppelt, Milbrath & Gilchrist, P.A., Orlando, Director, Florida Lawyers Mutual Insurance Company

Speakers:

Penelope Perez Kelly, Esq., Fisher Rushmer, P.A., Orlando
Ms. Kelly will define cultural competence and comment on challenges faced by attorneys who represent foreign clients

Brittany Maxey, Esq., Maxey Law Offices, St. Petersburg, Former President of Florida Association for Women Lawyers
Ms. Maxey will comment on whether women still face "glass ceilings" in the legal profession and why.

Natalie A. Jackson, Esq., Women's Trial Group, Orlando
Ms. Jackson will describe challenges faced by attorneys who represent clients from inner city neighborhoods and the consequences success or failure can have on the community.

The speakers also will address the following:

- How can a lack of cultural competence and awareness contribute to attorney error and possibly a legal malpractice claim, bar grievance and/or professionalism complaint and what are some ways to mitigate these risks?
- How can a lack of communication skills contribute to a legal malpractice claim, bar grievance and /or professionalism complaint and what are some ways to mitigate these risks?
- What are some best practices when representing a client with a diverse background?

The CLE will end with questions from the audience, time permitting.

The CLE will be videotaped and is sponsored by Florida Lawyers Mutual Insurance Company.
